Between the sea of the Cinque Terre and the hills surrounding Monterosso, Buranco preserves one of the area's most important winemaking traditions. This experience invites you into the winery to see up close the journey that turns grapes into wine, through history, passion and local flavors.

Guided by the winery team, you will visit the vineyards, the winemaking areas, the bottling area and the evocative barrel cellar where the red wines age. The tour ends with a guided tasting of five Buranco labels, paired with bruschetta and typical local products, so you can understand how each wine expresses the unique character of the Cinque Terre.

An experience designed for those who want to discover wine right where it is born, enjoying a journey through flavors, landscapes and local traditions.
