In the heart of Venice, this Venetian mask workshop takes you on a journey to discover one of the city's most iconic craft traditions. In an authentic atelier near St. Mark's Square, you'll enter the world of the Venice Carnival amidst papier-mâché, colors, and decorations made using techniques passed down through time.

Guided by master artisans Giorgio and Nicolò, you will choose a handmade Venetian mask and learn traditional decorating techniques using brushes, paints, and authentic materials. During the workshop, you will personalize your creation in an intimate and creative atmosphere, discovering curiosities and stories related to the art of Venetian masks.

An authentic experience to live Venice through creativity, craftsmanship, and traditions that continue to define the city's identity even today.
