In an intimate and welcoming setting, this couple's massage workshop guides you to discover conscious touch through relaxing techniques inspired by spa rituals. An experience designed to slow down, reconnect, and share an authentic moment with your partner or a special person.

Led by Laura, a professional masseuse, you will learn the basics of relaxing back massage by following a practical and accessible protocol even for those without experience. During the workshop, you will experiment with movements, pressures, and simple techniques to create well-being, listening, and mutual relaxation in a calm and regenerating atmosphere.

What makes this experience special

- Relaxing massage workshop to be experienced as a couple
- Techniques inspired by professional spa rituals
- Session guided by a professional masseuse
