A shared table, wine glasses, and the aroma of freshly baked focaccia. The experience is designed as a gathering, where pleasure lies in the slow pace and the simplicity of things done well.

The chef welcomes guests with an initial toast, accompanied by typical products. The evening continues in an informal atmosphere, where pizza becomes part of a broader experience of conversations, laughter, and shared time.

During the gathering, food intertwines with the setting: every element contributes to creating an authentic, unforced moment.
